Club Member Notices

1. We are missing the key to Changing Room 5 in the new build, it has been AWOL for about a month - please can you check your stick/kit bags and return it to the club if you have it. It has a large CHC logo and number on it so it won't fit in your pocket!!
2. The water pitch has been deep cleaned and is much improved, so this weekend it is ok for play. The contractors will return next week for a day to finalise the clean and complete the blue areas and edges. PLEASE CLEAN YOUR FOOTWEAR FROM LAST WEEK!
3. The heart Defibrillator machine has arrived and we need some volunteers for training in its use. The training will be at Chelmer Park and be about 2 hours one evening. Please let Janine know urgently if you fancy taking this on. Remember this is an important investment and we need to try to ensure that we can use it confidently. It will not deploy if the correct conditions are not existing in the patient, but if they are, well a life saver probably!

Chelmsford Chumps!

Nikki Tuff - For trying to show the youngsters that she was just as fit as they are and could easily do the high leg kicks in the warm-up and promptly strained her hamstring!!

FRIENDS OF CHC : WINE & CHEESE PARTY 2012

The first gathering of the Friends of Chelmsford Hockey Club, was held as a Wine & Cheese Party at the clubhouse on Sunday 21st October.

Those invited were mainly over 50 years old (the usual "qualifying age") with Life Member Alan Gemmill at a sprightly 86 probably the oldest (we did not ask everyone their age!)

Those attending were Life Members, the President, and many past and present players including Evergreens and Vets.

There were 64 friends in total that came, out of some 140 invited. Nearly 6 kilos of cheese was consumed as well as much wine, prosecco and beer. Some friends came from Lancashire and many from the distant past - some had not met up for over 30 years.

The opportunity was taken to look at old photos as well as Peggy Double's famous record book of the ladies team from 1898 up to about 1980.

The display case of the Evergreens Tours was formally unveiled and the display can be seen next to the bar.

We will probably hold an event each year so if anyone who is or was a player with the club and is over 50 wants to join the list please let Doug Denman know.

Meet the CHC Captains!

This week it's L4's captain, Gill Collins and Mixed captain, Bryan Baker.

Nickname:	Don't have one anymore , used to be Squirrel!
Position played:	CF
Life Motto:	There's nothing in life wine and chocolate can't solve
Sporting Idol:	Nikki tuff—Without her grace, poise and words of wisdom each week life would be very dull In the Ladies 4's.
Funniest moment on a hockey pitch:	During my first season at CHC, I managed to fall over my own feet just before striking the ball towards an open goal, not only did I not score, the rest of the team couldn't understand why I was celebrating having not scored. Meanwhile I was laying on the pitch soaking up the water...such a proud moment!

Nickname:	B-ry
Position played:	Anywhere & everywhere...except in goal!
Life Motto:	Have fun, enjoy life & be happy
Sporting Idol:	Michael Jordon
Funniest moment on a hockey pitch:	Being taken out by Mikey de Mello on Club Day last season!
