CHELMSFORD HC BEER FESTIVAL 2013

Our “mature” President Nigel King preparing “Super Snakey B” which consisted of “Heavenly Matter” ale, special brew 7.3% cider and just plain old blackcurrant, ready for the 4 man “3 man” game! Those who were there on Boxing Day will be pleased to know that the dice are still against Emu and that Little Nourse still can’t deal with the “no touching face” rule! The game even had two spectators, Ian and Ed, who now know the rules very well so watch out Evergreens and Vets in Nice, Nigel is packing the dice...

Nigel - we hope these pictures don't get you in trouble with Mrs “Bunny” King!!

If they do, blame Emu!

Second Weekend & Presidents Grumble

Thank you to those of you who popped in to the Clubhouse during last Saturday afternoon to continue sampling the beers and cider on offer. However, the evening attempt at an indoor games night proved a little difficult with just 6 people in attendance. The first weekend of the Beer Fest was successful but you should know this was due to considerable attendance from external supporters. We all lead busy lives and no doubt have other engagements or responsibilities to fulfil. This is all perfectly understandable, however, it would be nice if all Club Members could put Club events etc a little higher up their priority list. Effort is put in by Club Officials in arranging events and it is disappointing and demoralising when they are not supported by a reasonable turnout from the membership. If you feel the Club is not organising the sort of events that would command your support, then please let someone know your thoughts and ideas!! This can come through your captain or via any of the management who's contact details can be found here. We are hoping that some of the beers will still be OK this coming weekend, certainly the cider will be. We might even have some hockey to play!
