1) Mike, thank you for joining us. Following a, let's be fair, somewhat disappointing scoring campaign in the 2012-13 season, you were nominated at an early stage of this season to be the coveted '11th man' spot on the Top Scorers and Serial Offenders chart. Are there any other factors aside from the inspiration you obviously drew from such a prestigious position to explain your considerably better form this season?

I firstly want to say how grateful I was for being nominated as the '11th man' this year. Yes I have to admit last season wasn't my finest on the hockey pitch with only one goal. This season I don't think I've changed much from previous years in the way I have played and trained. Maybe I'm a little bit fitter and my new policy of stealing everyone else's goals has really paid off.

2) Did you ever contemplate 're-starting' your hockey career in one of the lower teams so as to re-build your confidence?

Nope, having the chance to play Summer League against James Stock (Men's 1st XI keeper) for a change gave me all the confidence I needed for the this season.

3) With your height disadvantage, did you consider having a shave and slotting in with the U13's to get a bit of extra game time?

Never! Most of them are taller than me and also I don't think they'd let me in their team as they're quite good. I've have seen the girls play hockey before and they don't mess around! I would end up getting hurt more in their games than I do in the men's games.

4) How much of a motivation was it to score more once your better half 'Victoria 'Tadders' Clark and younger sister Grace Millane both joined the club for this season?

O yes this certainly helped the motivation a lot and made things at home a bit more interesting. A few side bets have been thrown in between us all after the weekend when we all scored.

5) With just a few games left you now sit alone at the top of the Men's 1st XI scorer's table. Just how much does this mean to you and how many rounds of drinks will you be getting in should you still be there at the end of the season?

Ahh this is news to me I thought our veteran striker (Vas) had laid claim to the top of the table after last weekends goal thriller. I owe a few beers after the amount of back post tap-ins I have scored this season but they all count I guess.

6) This year you've got 1200% of the previous seasons tally. Going on that rate of improvement can we reasonably expect you to hit 144 goals next season?

Seems like an a legit target to reach, I might have to play for a few other teams within the club to reach it though.

Chelmsford Chumps!

Adam "Emu" Hunter for taking it upon himself to reinforce the necessity for correct protective equipment to be worn by all junior and senior members! Playing for the mens 1st XI he omitted the gum shield on this occasion against Ramgharia, and wore a stick in the mouth instead. Needless to say I don't think he'd recommend this!

2nd XI Plate

The Ladies 2s won their quarter-final tie away against Team Bath Buccaneers 2s and now progress to the semi-finals of the 2nd XI Plate where they will face Cannock 2s away on 16th March.
